

Legendary Lovers – Katy Perry

Under a silver moon, tropical temperature
I feel my lotus bloom, come closer
I want your energy, i want your aura
You are my destiny, my mantra

I never knew i could see something so clearly
Looking through my third eye
Never knew karma could be so rewarding
And bring me to your light
Maybe this is the beginning of something
so magical tonight
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

Take me down to the river
Underneath the blood-orange sun
Say my name like a scripture
Keep my heart beating like a drum
Legendary lovers
We could be legendary
La la la la la
Legendary lovers
We should be legendary
La la la la la

Go down in history, go down together
Into infinity, forever
Your cleopatra, your blushing juliet
Anything for you love, a ride or die

I never knew i could see something
So clearly looking through my third eye
Never knew karma could be so rewarding
and bring me to your light
Maybe this is the beginning of something
so magical tonight
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

Take me down to the river
Underneath the blood-orange sun
Say my name like a scripture
Keep my heart beating like a drum
Legendary lovers
We could be legendary
La la la la la
Legendary lovers
We should be legendary
La la la la la

Ah, uh, uh, ah, uh, uh, ah, uh
Legendary lovers
Uh
Legendary lovers
Ah, uh
Legendary lovers
Uh
Oh!

Take me down to the river
Say my name like a scripture
Keep my heart beating like a drum
Legendary lovers
We could be legendary
La la la la la
Legendary lovers
We should be legendary

Take me down to the river
Say my name like a scripture
Keep my heart beating like a drum
Legendary lovers
We could be legendary
La la la la la
Legendary lovers

We should be legendary

La la la la la

Ah, uh!
